

The Lewis Design Group

RELAXATION ROOM

Dubbed "Her Sanctuary," this spa-like space is "a spot for a few girlfriends to unwind and powwow after a day at the beach," says interior designer Barbara Lewis, who transformed the walk-in closet into a massage room. "Although the house is modern, this space is very feminine and pretty. I wanted to stay true to my style."

The Goods

(NEAR LEFT) The canopy bed is from Palecek and the rattan armchairs are from Harbinger New York. (TOP, MIDDLE, AND NEAR RIGHT) The relaxation room is furnished with a Charles

Stewart sofa and chairs, a pair of screens featuring a chinoiserie print from Schumacher, and decorative metal palm trees from designer Barbara Lewis's own collection. See Resources.

