The Lewis Design Group

Barbara Lewis, principal and owner of The Lewis Design Group, has more than twenty-five years of interior design experience. With a lifelong passion for design and an education from The New York School of Interior Design, Lewis has cultivated a deep understanding and appreciation for fine interiors.

A respected leader among her peers, Lewis is recognized for creating timeless design that maintains the delicate balance between current trends and classic style. Although Lewis has been an interior designer for decades, in recent years she has reached new heights in her career.

In the past two years alone, The Lewis Design Group earned acclaim for four prestigious showhouse designs, in addition to features in numerous publications, including Architectural Digest, New England Home, Connecticut Cottages & Gardens, Hamptons Magazine, and Newsday, as well as profiles by brands such as Sotheby's.

The Lewis Design Group offers a boutique, full-service approach that results in beautiful interiors to be enjoyed for years to come.

● The Lewis Design Group created "Her Sanctuary" for Holiday House Hamptons 2019.
 ● A residential project with a classic yet current style by The Lewis Design Group.
 ● The Lewis Design Group created a charming Hamptons bedroom for the first virtual Hampton Designer Showhouse in 2020.
 ● This design for Rooms with a View Southport 2019 by The Lewis Design Group was inspired by design icon and founder Albert Hadley.
